FAQIR CHAND SHARMA VS RAJVEER SINGH etc.

Present: Sh. S.K Fatta Adv. counsel for complainant

Non-Bailable warrants issued against accused received back with report-evading arrest and despite issuing repeated summons/warrants accused did not turn up in the court. In the light of the peculiar circumstances, the Court has reason to believe that accused is absconding in order to evade the execution of the warrants. Consequently, a proclamation is ordered to be issued against accused. The police authorities are hereby directed to complete the process of proclamation and return the proclamation on or before 20.09.2024, thereby giving the accused not less than 30 days to appear from the last date of issuance of proclamation. The serving official is further directed to appear in the Court for making statement about execution on 25.10.2024. Presence of accused be also awaited for 25.10.2024

Date of Order: 2024-08-23
