Order No. 9 dated 25.6.2015:

The record is put up today on the basis of a petition filed by the petitioners.

Both parties file a joint petition praying for sending the record to the Permanent Lok Adalat for conciliatory settlement on the grounds that the matter has been settled between them amicably and to give effect to such settlement the record is required to be placed before the said Lok Adalat.

The petitioner No.1 also files a petition praying for granting permission to her for compromising the case on behalf of the minor petitioner on the grounds stated therein.

Heard the Id. Advocates of both sides. Seen the petitions. Considered.

Since the matter has been amicably settled between the parties, I find no impediment in granting the prayers. Hence, prayers made are allowed.

The petitioner No.,1 is permitted to compromise the case on behalf of the minor petitioner before the said Lok Adalat.

Let the record be sent to the Permanent Lok Adalat to be held today at once.

All the petitions are thus disposed of.

D/C by me,

Judge, 5th. M.A.C. T. Burdwan.

Order No.07 dated 08.09.17

Record is put up on the basis of a put up petition filed by the petitioner.

PO is on leave. Ld. Judge, Special Court is in-charge of this Court.

A compromise petition is filed by both the parties praying for sending the case record before the Daily Lok Adalat for settlement on the ground that the matter has been settled amicably between the parties as the OP Insurance Company made a proposal for settling the case at a sum of Rs.1,60,000/- and the petitioners have agreed to that proposal and therefore, to give effect to such settlement the record is required to be placed before the Daily Lok Adalat. Let the compromise petition be kept with the record.

At this stage Ld. Counsel for the OP Insurance Company files a compromise petition dated 22.03.17 stating that the final settlement amount of Rs.1,60,000/- has been approved by the OP 2 the Insurance Company in the instant case.

One Vokatnama and xerox copy of voter identify card of Kishore Banerjee are also filed. Let it be kept with the record.

In view of such circumstances, and considering the fact that there is chance of settlement between the parties, I am inclined to send the case before the Daily Lok Adalat for amicable settlement.

Let the case record be sent to the Daily Lok Adalat to be held today at once.
