G.R Case No. 362 of 2023

(CNR No. WBBD-2177-2024

(Reg. No. GR/1225/2024)

(Arising out of Monteswar P.S case no. 104 of 2023 dated 18.02.2023)

Charge under sections 341/323/504/506 of I.P.C.

STATE OF WEST BENGAL

VERSUS

1. Kaji Maha Rafikujjaman @ Kazi Mohammad Rafikul Jamal

Date of Delivery of Judgment : 11.03.2026

J U D G M E N T

The prosecution case started on the basis of the written complaint lodged by the victim namely, Jasimuddin Molla before Monteswar Police Station. It has been alleged by the defacto complainant that on 13.02.2023 at about 9.00 a.m. The above-mentioned accused person assaulted defacto complainant with fist and blows and threatened him with filthy languages. Then the de facto complainant lodged this case.

On the basis of the aforesaid written complaint Monteswar P.S case no. 104 of 2023 dated 18.02.2023 charge under sections 341/323/504/506 of I.P.C was started against the FIR named accused person. On completion of investigation, the concerned investigating officer (I.O) submitted the charge sheet under sections 341/323/504/506 of I.P.C against the accused person.

The Court of Ld A.C.J.M, Kalna proceeded for trial after supplying copy to the accused person.

Charge was framed against the accused person under sections 341/323/504/506 of I.P.C . The contents of charges were read over and explained to the accused person who pleaded not guilty and claimed to be tried. Hence this trial.

Defence did not adduce any evidence. However, from the statements of the accused person u/s 351 of BNSS and the trend of cross-examination of the prosecution witnesses, it appears that the defence case is that of denial of the prosecution case and plea of innocence.

Points for determination:-

1. Whether the accused person have committed the offence punishable under sections 341/323/504/506 of I.P.C ?
2. Whether the prosecution has been able to prove its case beyond all shadow of reasonable doubt?

EVIDENCE ON RECORD:-

PW-1 : Jasimuddin Mollah.

PW-2 : Monoar Ali Sk.

DECISION WITH REASONS

Time has come to pave through the materials on record to fathom out as to how far the prosecution has been able to bring home its case against the present accused person.

Point No. 1 & 2 :-

I take up the opportunity to discuss both the points as they are closely related with each other.

In order to bring home the charges against the accused person, the prosecution must prove its case beyond a shadow of reasonable doubt.

Now let me go through the evidence of witnesses examined by the prosecution.

P.W.-1, the defacto complainant of this case, Jasimuddin Mollah deposed that she had filed this case against four person. In the year 2023 one day, one dispute cropped up between her and the accused person. He further stated that the matter has been settled amicably between them and she does not have any grievance against the accused person.

P.W-2 : Monoar Ali Sk, neighbor of the defacto complainant has been examined as P.W. 2. He deposed in consonance with the deposition of the victim.

The settled principle of Criminal Law is that if the prosecution wants to prove the fact, the same must be proved by leading evidence which must be reliable-trustworthy and conclusively proves the guilt of the accused person. But in this case, I cannot hold that the evidence laid conclusively establishes the guilt of the accused person.

There is a significant difference between the words “may be true” and “must be true”. Suspicion, however strong can never replace the place of proof. The way from may be true to must be true shall have to be paved out by the prosecution with cogent and reliable evidence. In this instant case, such evidence is not forthcoming from the end of the prosecution. Accordingly, this being the situation it is my considered view that the accused person should get benefit of doubt.

From the evidence of prosecution witnesses nothing has transpired which can direct the arrow of suspicion to the present accused person. The key witnesses of the Prosecution have not supported the case. Therefore, after giving a serious cogitation to the materials on record, this Court can safely come to the conclusion that the prosecution has miserably failed to prove its case against the accused person. Therefore, the accused person deserve to be acquitted from this case.

In result, the prosecution fails.

Hence, it is,

ORDERED

that the accused person named above are found not guilty of the offence punishable under sections 341/323/504/506 of I.P.C and they are acquitted u/s 271(1) of BNSS.

The accused person be discharged from bail bonds and be set at liberty forthwith.

The sureties are discharged as well.

The seized alat, if any, be destroyed after the appeal period.

NOTE : THE FAMILY OF THE VICTIM IN THIS CASE SHALL HAVE THE RIGHT TO PREFER AN APPEAL, THEY SHALL BE ENTITLED TO AVAIL FREE LEGAL AID AND ASSISTANCE THROUGH KALNA SDSLC TO PREFER AND PROSECUTE SUCH APPEAL.

NOTE : LET A COPY OF THIS JUDGMENT OF ACQUITTAL BE FORWARDED TO THE DISTRICT MAGISTRATE AND SECRETARY, DLSA, PURBA BURDWAN FOR DUE INTIMATION TO THE VICTIM.

NOTE : Details of the de facto complainant of this case is as follows :-

Name of the de facto complainant : Jasimuddin Molla.
