

Case Called out before Lok-Adalat.

The plaintiff and her Counsel, defendant No.1 to 10 and their respective counsels present and filed the compromise petition and submitted that the matter has been settled between the parties. The terms and conditions of the compromise petition read over to the parties and all together submitted their abide to the terms of the compromise petition. Hence, the said compromise is not illegal and not against the public policy. Hence, the petition is hereby allowed.

Draw a decree accordingly.

The compromise petition is part and parcel of the decree.

Advocate
Conciliator

Judicial Conciliator