Shri Swarnendu Mondal, Advocate for the plaintiff/petitioner no.- 01.

and

Ritu Karak @ Ritu Ghosh

Shri Rahul Pal, Advocate for the plaintiff/petitioner no.- 02.

Order No.- 06

17/08/2026

Today is fixed for argument and order.

Both the parties have filed hazira through their Ld. Advocates respectively.

Heard argument on behalf of both sides.

Considered.

The case record is taken up for passing order.

This is a proceeding under section 13B of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955.

A petition for dissolution of marriage by a decree for divorce was presented on 28/08/2025 by both the parties to the marriage together on the ground that they have been living separately for a period of one year or more on and from ... and that they have not been able to live together and they they have mutually agreed that the marriage should be dissolved.

Thereafter, on the motion of both the parties made on 18/06/2026 i.e. not earlier than six months after the date of presentation of the petition and not later than eighteen months after the said date the petition was not withdrawn.

On 18/06/2026 an endeavour to bring about a reconciliation between the parties was made but amicable settlement could not be arrived at.

In proceeding with the hearing of the petition on 28/07/2026 both the parties were examined as P.W.- 01 (plaintiff/petitioner no.- 01) and P.W.- 02 (plaintiff/petitioner no.- 02) respectively.

From the materials on record it is evident that a marriage has been solemnized between the parties.

The averments in the petition are presumed to be true since the same are supported by affidavit sworn by both the parties.

The mutual consent is found not to be obtained by force, fraud or undue influence.

The petition is found not to be presented in collusion with each other.

There has not been any unnecessary or improper delay in instituting the proceeding.

There is no other legal ground why relief should not be granted.

Accordingly, the petition stands allowed.

Court fee paid is sufficient.

Hence, it is

that the petition for dissolution of marriage by a decree of divorce under section 13B of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 presented by the parties to the marriage together is allowed on consent.

A decree of divorce is hereby passed declaring the marriage to be dissolved with effect from the date of the decree.

The Head Comparing Clerk is directed to give a copy of this order free of cost to each of the parties at once.

The Bench Clerk is directed to place this order / record to the Head Comparing Clerk for compliance at once.

The concerned clerk is directed to draw up decree in accordance with the judgment as expeditiously as possible within fifteen days.

Certified copy of the judgment be made available to the parties immediately, if applied for.
