UCR/582/2023

State Vs. Unknown

Present: Sh. Shiv, APP for the State.

File put up before National Lok Adalat. Notice issued to complainant not received back either executed or unexecuted. From perusal of file reveals that untrace report was presented in the court on 05.09.2023 and complainant was not present along with the untrace report, therefore, notice to complainant was ordered to be issued and since then present case is pending for securing the presence of complainant but presence of complainant has not been secured till date despite issuance of notice. From perusal of case file and the reports on the notice, it reveals that no purpose would be served to keep the file pending. Therefore, present untrace report is ordered to be consigned to record room after due compliance. The complainant has liberty to file protest petition, as per law.
