

NDPS Case No. 133 of 2025

Present : Sri Anirban Das
Additional Sessions Judge,
1st Court, (NDPS), Cooch Behar.
JO Code No. WB00691

Order No. 6

dated 01.04.2026

Record is put up today on the strength of a put up petition along with a petition filed on behalf of custody accused Anand Suman and Rishiraj Suman praying for bail on the ground stated therein.

Copy served.

Ld. PP in charge and the Ld. Lawyer of the accused persons are present.

Now the bail petition is taken up for hearing.

Heard both sides.

It was submitted by the Ld. Counsel for the accused that no bail petition is pending before any higher forum.

It is submitted by the Ld. Advocate for the above accused persons that they have no nexus with the alleged offence and have been falsely implicated in this case and will not abscond if granted bail in their favour. So, they may be granted bail in any terms and conditions.

Ld. PP in charge opposes the bail prayer considering the nature of the offence where huge quantity of narcotic substances has been seized and charge-sheet has already been submitted in this case.

Perused the materials on record, case record and submission.

Having heard the submission of both sides and on perusal of the case record I find that huge quantity of narcotic substance (total 27 kg of Ganja) has allegedly been recovered and seized in this case. Since the seized narcotic substance is commercial quantity in nature for which no such benefit could be extended to them in view of section 37 of NDPS Act in this regard. Moreover, the charge-sheet u/s 20(b)(ii)(C)/29 of the NDPS Act has already been submitted in this case after completion of investigation and the case is at evidence stage.

Considering recovery of commercial quantity of Narcotic substances and gravity of offence, I am not inclined to enlarge accused person on bail at this stage. Hence prayer for bail in respect of accused Anand Suman and Rishiraj Suman stands rejected.

Todate (19.06.2026 and 20.06.2026) for production evidence as per schedule.
