ORDER

1. This order of mine shall dispose of regular bail application moved by the applicant/accused Sukhmeet Singh in this case bearing FIR No.147 of 16.9.2019 U/S 21-61-85 NDPS Act, P.S. City Fazilka, District Fazilka, wherein it is submitted that the applicant/accused has been falsely implicated in the aforesaid case. The applicant/accused is in judicial custody since 16.9.2019 and no useful purpose will be served by keeping him in judicial custody. There is no apprehension of the absconding of the applicant/accused or tampering with prosecution evidence. The applicant/accused will not misuse the concession of bail granted by this court. The applicant/accused is ready to furnish his bail bond and surety bonds to the satisfaction of this court. So, he be released on bail.

2. Notice of the bail application was given to the State and police record was called which is produced from Police Station City Fazilka, District Fazilka. No reply to the bail application was filed. However, learned Addl.PP for the State orally contested the bail application.

3. I have heard learned counsel for the applicant/accused, learned Addl. PP for the State and perused the police file very carefully.

4. As per the FIR, the applicant/accused was found in possession of 20 Gms. Heroin from his conscious possession. The accused/applicant could not show any license or permit for keeping the same in his possession. The accused/applicant is in custody since 16.9.2019. The recovery of more than 250 Gms. is commercial in nature. So, the recovered quantity of above said intoxicated Smack from the possession of present accused falls in non-commercial quantity. The applicant/accused is not required for further investigation of the case. The presentation of challan and disposal thereof is likely to take considerable time. So, in these circumstances, no useful purpose would be served by detaining the accused behind the bars and rather it would be a burden upon the State exchequer. Therefore, the applicant/accused is ordered to be released on bail in this case on his furnishing personal bonds in the sum of Rs. One Lac with one surety of the like amount to the satisfaction of this court, with the conditions that:-

1. He shall appear in the court on each and every date of hearing.
