....Respondent

APPLICATION UNDER SEC. 438 OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE CODE.

Present: Shri Raman Mehta Advocate for applicants-accused
Ms. Mandeep Kaur, Additional Public Prosecutor for State
Sh. Bablu Dadwal Advocate for respondent No. 2

ORDER:

This order of mine will dispose of bail application filed by applicants/accused aforementioned, for grant of anticipatory bail in complaint case titled as “Karanvir Singh Vs. Balbir Singh etc.”, pending in the court of Ms. Shaveta Thakur, Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Hoshiarpur.

2. It is submitted by learned counsel for applicants/accused that false complaint has been filed against applicants and they have been wrongly summoned in complaint under Sections 420 of Indian Penal Code.

Applicants have not committed any offence, as alleged. However, applicants are ready to appear before trial court, but they have apprehension of their arrest.

3. I have considered these contentions and gone through record. Offence punishable under Section 420 of Indian Penal Code is non-bailable in nature. Custodial interrogation of applicants/accused is not required. Prayer has not been seriously opposed. To my mind, it is a fit case where applicants can be extended concession of pre-arrest bail. Accordingly, applicants/accused are directed to appear before the learned Trial Court within 5 days from today and on their doing so, they will be admitted to bail, subject to the satisfaction of the learned Trial Court/Duty Magistrate. Said court is free to impose all or any of lawful conditions for bail.

Application is disposed of accordingly.

File be consigned to record room.
