

Misc. Case 1095 of 2023 (CNR WBCC01-002239-2023)
Present : Sri Soumendra Nath Das, Judge, Bench-II (J.O. Code: WB01132)

Order No. : 02
Dated : 20.03.2023

Record is put up today by a petition filed by the petitioner.

This application taken out u/s 9 of Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 by the petitioner, namely, BAJAJ FINANCE LIMITED with a prayer for appointment of receiver and also for police help to enable the receiver to take possession and also for taking steps for preservation of the vehicle in his custody, is taken up for hearing.

Heard the Ld. Advocate. Perused all the documents appended to the application. From the record it transpires that the respondent as borrower had entered into a hire purchase agreement with the petitioner to purchase one PULSAR N 160 DUAL CHANNEL-BS6 vehicle bearing Engine No PDX-CND-62785 and Chassis No. MD2-B54-DXO-NCD-01993 taking financial help and the Respondent was granted loan of Rs. 01,40,000/-, payable by 42 equated monthly installments along with interest, commencing from 13.10.2022, considerable amount of money Rs. 01,99,612/- is still lying due.

So, it is appearing that a huge amount of money is lying due which is payable by the respondents to the petitioner in terms of agreement executed by and between the parties hereto and so, it is appearing that there is strong prima facie case in favour of the petitioner herein and it goes without saying that an interim order can be given in case of apprehended danger also if balance of convenience and inconvenience is tilted in favour of the parties seeking such interim order and if the said vehicle is removed to any unknown place or if third party interest is created in respect of such vehicle in any manner whatsoever, the petitioner shall suffer irreparable loss and injury and hence, it is appearing that balance of convenience and inconvenience is also tilted in favour of the petitioner and accordingly it is considered that petitioner has made out a good prima facie case in his favour and hence, it is held that petitioner is entitled to get order for appointment of receiver for protection and preservation of the subject vehicle.

Hence, it is

Paramita Banerjee, an Advocate be appointed receiver temporarily for the parties for taking over possession of the vehicle bearing Engine No PDX-CND-62785 and Chassis No. MD2-B54-DXO-NCD-01993.

Receiver is authorized to take all possible steps in accordance with law including appointment of agent. The police authority of nearby Police Station or Superintendent of Police under the jurisdiction of whom, the vehicle in question is intercepted, would render assistance as would be required lawfully by the receiver and if situation demands for
