Order No.03
06.04.2026

The record is put up on the strength of put up petition filed by the Ld. Advocate on behalf of the petitioner and also filed MO tracking report.

From the office report, it appears that no caveat has been filed till now.

The application under Section 9 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act,1996 is moved before this Court by the Ld. Advocate for the petitioner praying for interim order for appointment of Receiver in terms of the prayer.

The application is supported by an affidavit and some annexures.

Perused the application along with copies of the documents annexed thereto including the loan agreement.

Issue notice upon the respondents to show-cause within 20(twenty) days from the date of receipt of the same.

Heard the Ld. Advocate.

From the record it transpire that the respondents as borrowers had entire into Loan Agreement with the petitioner to purchase a vehicle, taking financial help of the petitioner.

Ld. Advocate of the petitioner further submits that Opposite parties/respondents are defaulter in payment of regular EMI as per terms and condition of the loan agreement. Notice was also issued, but no result took place.

So it is appearing that a huge amount of money is lying due which is payable by the respondents to the petitioner in terms of the agreement executed by and between the parties thereto.

In view of the facts and circumstances stated above, there appears a strong prima facie case for appointment of Receiver for preservation of the vehicle in question. In view of urgency in the matter and the circumstances as stated, the prayer for ad-interim order for appointment of Receiver is considered and allowed for protection and preservation of the vehicle in question, on condition that the petitioner shall take immediate steps to refer the matter to an Arbitrator within 90 days from this date in terms of Section 9 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act,1996 in default this order will be vacated automatically.

Hence, it is,
