ORDER

1. Present regular bail application has been filed by the applicant/accused in a case FIR number 85 Dated 12.05.2026 Under Section 21, 29, 61, 85 of NDPS Act Police Station Longowal.

2. In pursuance of notice of the application having been issued, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the respondent-State has put in appearance. Record has been produced by ASI Sukhwinder Singh, number 1732/Sangrur.

3. I have heard the learned counsel for the applicant/accused and learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State and have gone through the record.

Arguments advanced by the learned counsel for the applicant/accused:

4. The learned counsel for the applicant/accused has submitted that applicant/accused has been falsely implicated in the present case and is in custody since 12.05.2026. He has been nominated with the aid of Section 29 of NDPS Act. The alleged recovery has already been effected from co-accused which is 8 gram and is marginally above the small quantity and falls in non commercial segment. No recovery is to be effected from him. Presentation of challan and conclusion of trial is likely to take sufficient time. Hence, the prayer for relief of regular bail has been made.

Arguments advanced by Learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State :

5. On the other hand, learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State has opposed the bail application on the ground that as the allegations against the applicant are grave in nature, she does not deserve the leniency of the Court in grant of relief of bail. It has been prayed that bail application of the applicant/accused be dismissed.

Factual matrix of the Case:

6. The criminal law was set into motion on the allegations that on 12.05.2026, accused Darshan Singh has been apprehended by ASI Sukhvir Singh with the help of other police officials and 08 gm heroin was recovered from him. During the interrogation of the co-accused, applicant/accused was nominated in the present case under section 29 NDPS ACT.

Findings:

8. After giving my thoughtful consideration to the rival submissions and on careful perusal of the averments put in the application, contents of the FIR, perusal of the record, coupled with the assistance rendered, it is pertinent to make mention that perusal of the file reveals that the applicant/accused is in custody since 07.06.2026 and is involved in this case with the aid of section 29 NDPS. The participation of the applicant/accused in the stated offence is to be proved during the pendency of the trial. The recovery has already been effected from co-accused which is marginally above the small quantity, thus falling in non-commercial segment. Rigours of section 37 NDPS Act is thus not attracted to the facts of the case. Presentation of challan will take time. No useful purpose would be served by detaining the accused/applicant in custody for an indefinite period, rather she will be a burden on the State Exchequer. In the gamut of the circumstances of the case, without further meticulously examining the evidence on record and without commenting upon the merits of the case, applicant/accused is subjected to bail on her furnishing bail bonds and surety bonds to the tune of Rs.1 Lac with one surety in the like amount to the satisfaction of the learned Illaqa/Duty Magistrate, subject to the following terms and conditions:

(Upinder Singh Jandu)
Judge, Special Court,

- (ii) Applicant shall not leave the country without prior permission of the Court;
- (iii) Applicant shall remain present before the Trial Court on each and every date of hearing, unless granted exemption; and
- (iv) Applicant shall fully cooperate with the Trial Court for expeditious conclusion of the trial proceedings.

In compliance of directions issued by the Hon'ble Supreme Court In Re policy Strategy for grant of bail 2023 (2) RCR (Criminal) 121 Supreme Court, soft copy of this bail order is ordered to be sent by email to prisoner/under trial through Jail Superintendent for compliance. Any observation made in this order shall have no effect on the merits of the case. Police record be returned. File be consigned to the record room.
