in Cr.No.12/2026.

... Respondent/Complainant

This petition came up before this court for hearing, in the presence of Thiru.G.Kumaresan, Advocate for petitioner/accused and of Tmt.R.Mahalakshmi, Special Public Prosecutor for the State and upon hearing both side and upon perusing the material records and having stood over till this day for consideration, this court passed the following;

ORDER

This petition has been filed by the petitioner/accused under section 483(1)(b) of BNSS, praying to fully relax the condition bail to the accused.

2) From the records, it is seen that the petitioner is alleged to have committed an offence of aggravated penetrative sexual assault on the 17 years old victim girl and thereby she got pregnant and delivered a male child. Hence, FIR in Cr.No.12/2026 was registered and the petitioner was arrested by the respondent Police on 17.03.2026 for the alleged offence punishable under section 5(l), 5(j)(ii), 6 of Protection of children from sexual offences Act, 2012 and was remanded to judicial custody. The petitioner has filed a bail petition in CrI.M.P.No.695/2026 and the same was allowed on 17.06.2026 on condition that the petitioner should stay at Erode and appear and sign before Erode All-Women police station daily twice until further orders. The petitioner is obeying the condition from 21.06.2026 to till date. Hence this instant petition.

3) The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner argued that, the petitioner is innocent and falsely implicated this case, he is no way connected with the above said offence, the petitioner is obeying condition regularly from 21.06.2026 without fail till date, he is having permanent address in locality, he would not likely to abscond. Thus, prayed to relax the condition bail to the accused.

4) Upon notice, the learned Special Public Prosecutor has submitting that if the bail condition is relaxed, he will not appear for the court enquiry and it may be a danger to the victim, he may tamper the witnesses and thereby, strongly objected this petition.

5) Having considered the above, it is an admitted fact that bail has already been granted to the petitioner by this court as early as on 17.06.2026 itself. The argument of the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and SPP reveals that the petitioner is complying with the condition regularly without any default. Therefore, considering the nature and gravity of the accusation and the object of the Special Act and also the objections of the SPP, this court deem it fair to relax the condition. Accordingly, this petition is disposed.

6) In the result, this petition stands allowed and ordered as under,

(i) In the circumstances, the bail condition imposed by this court on 17.06.2026 is relaxed on condition that the petitioner/accused shall stay at Erode, appear and sign before Erode All Women Police Station monthly twice i.e., 1st and 15th day of every month at 10.00 a.m., until further orders.

(ii) The other conditions imposed at the time of bail remains unaltered.

Pronounced by me in the open court on this, the 20th day of August, 2026.
