9 MISC DJ 118/25
POONAM Vs. NEW INDIA ASSURANCE COM LTD

10.02.2025

An application already moved on behalf of applicant seeking pre-mature release of award amount.

Present: Sh. Shivam Kumar, Ld. Counsel for applicant/DH.

Heard. Perused.

Petitioner/applicant has again failed to appear today after having failed to appear before Tribunal for the last several dates of hearing. The petitioner has also failed to furnish the relevant documents to corroborate her claim regarding the need of money urgently while seeking premature release of the compensation amount in the present matter.

In the totality of facts and circumstances as revealed on record, it appears that the petitioner is not in need of urgent money and no ground is made out to release the compensation amount prematurely as prayed for in the application. Hence, application at hand is hereby dismissed accordingly.

File be consigned to record room and be tagged with main case file as per rules.
