COURT OF ADDITIONAL SESSIONS JUDGE,
(DESIGNATED SPECIAL COURT UNDER SECTION 22 OF THE N.I.A ACT) BARAMULLA

Date of Order: 01-12-2022

UT of J&K through SHO P/S Chandoosa
Case FIR No. 11/2020 under Section 7/25 I.A. Act, 121 IPC, 20,38 ULA (P) Act

V E R S U S

Bashir Ahmad Beigh S/o Ghulam Mohhi-ud-din Beigh R/o Shirpora
(Accused)

In the matter of: Application in terms of Section 43(D) ULA(P) Act for extension of Investigation period.

In the matter of : Application for grant of remand.

ORDER

Through the medium of the instant report filed by the learned PP in terms of Section 43-D of Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, 1967 (hereinafter as the ULA(P) Act for short) accompanied with the separate report of the I.O communicated by him to the learned PP, the extension in the period of investigation in the above titled case FIR is sought beyond the period of 99 days in respect of accused whilst the accused being in custody on the grounds inter-alia:-

1. The Government sanction required under UAPA Act is also required from the competent authority in the instant case.

Register.

Perused the instant report of the learned PP. Also perused the accompanied report of the I.O. The accused is on judicial remand in the Sub Jail Baramulla till 01-12-2022 as per the remand order dated 22-11-2022 of this Court. Accused who was produced was put to notice through video conferencing, however he submitted that he is in good health condition.

In the light of the aforementioned perusal and especially having regard to the involvement of the accused in heinous offences, this court is of the considered opinion that the learned PP as well as IO of the case who claimed that apart from being heinous offences the Government sanction under UAPA Act is required from the competent authority in the instant case. The extension if granted is likely to enable the I.O of the case to conclude the investigation and to also get the required sanction from the Government.

Accordingly the application for extension is allowed and the period of investigation in the case whilst the accused being in custody (remand period) is extended for a further period with effect from 01-12-2022. The I.O of the case shall avail the opportunity and ensure the fair and logical conclusion of the investigation with the presentation of the charge report/challan before the competent court.

A separate application has been moved by Sh. Bashir Ahmad No. 205/B of SDPO Office Kreeri on behalf of IO SDPO, Kreeri of the case for grant of judicial remand in favour of the accused.

Perused the application. Also perused the CD file concerned. Register.
