Reply by State :-

3. APP for the State, appeared and filed reply to application and opposed the bail application on the ground that accused have committed serious offence. As such prayer for dismissal of the present bail application has been made.

Findings and Conclusion:-

4. I have considered the rival contentions raised by learned counsel for accused, learned APP for the State and have also perused the file. Present FIR was registered against the accused u/s 305,115(2),331(6),324(2),191(3),190 of BNS, PS Bahavwala, Abohar and accused were arrested on 20.05.2026. Recovery has already been effected in the present case. Moreover, there is nothing on record which shows that accused will interfere in the investigation if they will be released from the custody. Moreover, there is nothing on record which shows that the accused will temper the evidence or threaten any witness if they will be released from the custody. Moreover, there is nothing on record which shows that there is any danger from the side of the accused to the victim as well as their family or any other witness if they will be released from the custody. Presentation of challan will take time. No useful purpose would be served by keeping applicant in the judicial custody for indefinite period. Keeping in view above said facts and circumstances, the present bail application is allowed and accused-applicants are ordered to be released on bail subject to furnishing personal bond in the sum of Rs. 20,000/- with one surety in the like amount each. Bail bonds and surety bonds not furnished. Papers be tagged with main case file. Copy of order being sent to system assistant concerned for compliance. Copy of the order be also sent to the Jail Superintendent for information and necessary action.
