Accused Niranjan Sarkar and Kalpana Sarkar on C.B are present with their Ld. Advocate. Ld. PP-in-charge is also present. The IO Samir Kumar Mandal, SI of Police, Gangarampur P.S is also present pursuant to direction of the court with a written explanation for his non appearance on the previous dates. Explanation being satisfactory be accepted and the document be kept with the record.

It is stated in the letter of explanation that he personally contacted the Head of the Department of Malda Medical College and Hospital and Bangur Institute of Neuro Sciences, Kolkata-25 on several occasions but could not collect the medical documents as per order of the court in respect of the victim.

The Ld. P.P-in-charge submits that in that event the direction be issued to the concerned hospitals so that the I.O may get proper cooperation. Considered.

It is always the responsibility of the concerned hospitals to supply the medical documents to the I.O since criminal trial is in progress and those documents are required by the court for effective adjudication. In such circumstances the Head of the Departments of Malda Medical College and Hospital and Bangur Institute of Neuro Sciences, Kolkata-25 respectively are requested to supply all medical documents to the said I.O in respect of the victim Nirmal Sarkar who has allegedly received injury on 28-02-2014 at village Deorabari under P.S. Balurghat.

Let a copy of this order be sent to the I.O and also to the aforesaid two hospitals for compliance.

Fix 09-03-2016 for production of the documents, appearance of the accused persons and further order.
