

Paramjit Kaur @ Matto Vs. State

CIS No.BA/1799/2020

CNR No.PBHO010043272020

Present: Sh.RS Bhogal, ld.counsel for applicant.
Ms.Mandeep Chahal, ld.APP for State.

By way of this order I will dispose of present bail application moved by accused U/S 167(2) Cr.P.C.

It is argued by the ld.counsel for accused that 180 days have expired and the challan is still not presented by the police in the court. Hence, accused is entitled to concession of bail U/S 167(2) Cr.P.C.

On the other hand, it is argued by the ld.APP for State that 180 days have been elapsed for presentation of challan against the accused on 26.8.2020 and the challan has been presented on 26.8.2020. Hence, the accused is not entitled to concession of bail U/S 167(2) Cr.P.C.

I have heard the arguments of ld.APP for State and ld.counsel for accused.

If arrest of the accused is seen, same was made on 28.2.2020 and the accused was remanded to judicial custody on 28.2.2020. If days are calculated, 180 days were elapsed on 26.8.2020, on which date, challan has been presented. As such, since challan has been presented within 180 days, accused is not entitled to concession of bail and his bail application U/S 167(2) Cr.P.C. is hereby dismissed. File be consigned to the record room.
