3. I have heard learned counsel for the applicant-accused and learned Addl. Public Prosecutor for the State and have gone through the police record very carefully.

4. Learned counsel for the applicant-accused has contended that the applicant-accused is innocent person and has been falsely implicated in the present case. From the contents of the FIR, no offence is made out against the applicant-accused. There is delay of eight days in lodging the present FIR. The complainant Chandan who was allegedly abducted in this case is confined in Central Jail, Faridkot in NDPS case. No injury has been attributed to the applicant-accused as he was not present at the spot. Even the applicant-accused has no weapon in his name nor is having any arms license. The police is raiding at the house of the applicant-accused. He is ready to join the investigation. Hence, a prayer has been made to admit the applicant-accused to interim anticipatory bail.

5. The Ld. Addl. Public Prosecutor for the State, on the other hand, has opposed the bail application by submitting that the FIR has been registered on the statement of complainant Chandan son of Kikkar against the applicant-accused and other co-accused Shiva, Anmol, Koki, Vishal, Money and Ajay with the allegations that on 01.06.2024 applicant-accused alongwith his co-accused came at the house of the complainant Chandan on two motor cycles and forcibly abducted him and took him

So, for thorough investigation of this case, the custodial interrogation of the applicant-accused shall be required. As such, a prayer has been made to dismiss the anticipatory bail application filed by the applicant-accused.

6. From the perusal of the file, it transpires that the present case FIR has been registered against the applicant-accused and others on the aforesaid allegations. The allegations against the applicant-accused are that at the time of occurrence he was armed with a pistol and he put the complainant on gun point. The applicant-accused was actively involved in the occurrence. He is specifically named in the FIR and specific role have been attributed to him. The weapons used for the commission of the crime are yet to be recovered. The allegations against the applicant-accused are serious and grave in nature. Thus, keeping in view the totality of the facts and circumstances and for the recovery of weapons used in the commission of the crime as well as for thorough probe, the custodial interrogation of the applicant-accused would be required, as such, this Court is of the considered opinion that the applicants-accused do not deserve the concession of anticipatory bail. Hence, the anticipatory bail application, filed by the applicants-accused under Section 482 of the Bhartiya Nagrik Suraksha Sanhita is ordered to be dismissed. Bail application file be consigned to the Record Room, Ferozepur.
