PUNJAB STATE VS Gurpreet Singh

Present: Sh. KS Rana Advocate, counsel for applicant/accused

Bail application filed today. It be registered. The counsel for accused submitted while presentation of the bail application that the due process of law is not followed while arresting the accused in the above said FIR. Accused arrested for the offences punishable for two years and no guidelines of the Hon'ble Apex Court issued in Arnesh Kumar Vs. State of Bihar (2014) 8 SCC 273 is followed by the Investigating Officer. No notice under Section 41 issued by the Investigating Officer prior to arrest of accused. Therefore, accused may kindly be released on bail. Accused is already presented in the Court and sent in the judicial custody. Therefore, I deem it necessary to issue the notice to learned APP for the State for filing the reply to the said bail application. The case adjourned to 25.01.2023 for filing reply by learned APP for the State if any, otherwise for consideration on bail application.
