Reference:- Gangarampur P.S Case No. 14 of 2026 dated 07-01-2026.

Order no. 14 dated 21-05-2026

Today is fixed for hearing bail application of the accused Dipta Rajbanshi.

Compliance report regarding service of bail application of the accused Dipta Rajbanshi upon the defacto complainant/ victim is received.

The defacto complainant is present.

The bail application is taken up for hearing.

Heard all sides. Considered.

Ld. Addl. P.P-in-charge objects to the prayer for bail.

It appears from the record that C.S was submitted against the accused on 05-03-2026. On perusal of the documents in the record and also the contents of the C.S, this Court as pleased to reject the prayer for bail on different occasions i.e. on 12-03-2026 and 18-04-2026. On 21-04-2026 charge was framed against the accused fixing dates for recording of evidence. Since then no development or no change in situation took place. In criminal jurisprudence successive or consecutive bail petition are perfectly maintainable, but they are generally filed when substantial change in circumstances occurred.

I had gone through the C.D and all the materials on the record and find no such substantial change of circumstances to consider the prayer for bail at this stage.

Considering the materials in the record and also the fact that charge is already framed against the accused and the record is ready for trial, I am not inclined to grant bail to the accused at this stage without recording the evidence.

Therefore, the application of bail is considered and rejected.
