

EXE 81 The Kharar Primary Vs. Tarlochan Singh

Present: Sh. Sukhveer Hundal, Adv for DH.

In the light of preceding zimini order, as per the ahlmad report, RC to JD, postal receipt dated 28.10.2017 received and attached, the statutory awaiting period of 30 days from the RC has already expired. So, the Judgment debtor is deemed to be served by way of RC as per the corresponding provision of the General Clauses Act. However, case called several times before lunch and after lunch, neither the JD nor anyone else has appeared on behalf of defendant. Awaited till 4.30 PM, case was again called, but none has appeared on behalf of the JD. As such, JD is proceeded against ex-parte. Now, warrants of attachment of property of judgment debtor be issued for 19.5.2018 on filing list of property by the decree holder within 15 days.
