JUDGE, SPECIAL COURT, GURDASPUR

CIS No: BA/1811/2025

CNR No: PBGD01-004311-2025

Date of Decision: 13.05.2025

Vishal @ Pali Vs. State of Punjab

FIR No.29 dated 17.04.2025

Under Sections 21(b), 27(a) 61 of NDPS Act and Section 29 of NDPS Act added later on vide Ddr NO.17 dated 19.04.2025.

Police Station:- Tibber

Bail application under Section 483 BNSS

Present: Sh. Lalit Kumar, Advocate, counsel for applicant
Shri J.P.Singh, Ld. Additional P. P for State

ORDER

1. This order of mine shall dispose of bail application U/s 483 of BNSS filed on behalf of accused/applicant for grant of bail.
2. Notice of the application was issued to the State and the police record has been requisitioned.
3. Learned counsel for the applicant has argued that the applicant is innocent and has been falsely implicated in the present FIR. The alleged recovery has already been effected from co-accused. Nothing is to be recovered from the applicant. Accordingly, learned Counsel for the applicant has prayed for grant of regular bail to the applicant.

4. Per contra learned Additional PP for the State opposed the bail application and prayed for its dismissal.

5. Rival contentions of both the sides have been heard and the record has been perused with due care and circumspection.

6. Perusal of police record produced before the court reveals that on 17.04.2025, police party headed by SI Satnam Singh apprehended accused Rachhpal Singh, in the area of Village Nawapind Hundal on suspicion and from the polythene bag carried by him, 10 grams of Heroin alongwith drugs money of Rs. 12,980/- was recovered. Present applicant has been nominated in the present case during interrogation of co-accused Rachhpal Singh, who disclosed that he purchased recovered Heroin from present applicant Vishal @ Pali.

In the matter of present case, 10 grams of Heroin alongwith drugs money of Rs. 12,980/- was recovered. The applicant/accused is in custody since 19.04.2025. Mere length of custody is no ground for grant of bail to applicant/accused when he is already involved in three other FIRs. Involvement of applicant/accused stands established at this stage. So the allegations are serious one. A considerable amount of drugs money has been recovered in the matter of present case. Keeping in view the seriousness of allegations, this Court does not intend to release accused applicant from custody as there is every possibility that if he is released on bail, he would again indulge in same kind of offences as well and it would be a great threat to the society. So, applicant/ accused is not entitled to concession of bail. Hence, present bail application stands dismissed. Bail application file be cosigned to record room.
