QUANTUM OF SENTENCE.

Present: Sh. Bikramjeet Singh Malha, APP for the State.
Convict Vinod Kumar @ Lucky in custody represented by Sh. Punit Gupta, Advocate.

I have heard learned APP for the State and learned Counsel for convict and convict in person. Convict has submitted that he is the only bread winner of his family and he is first time offender. A prayer have been made for taking a lenient view.

On the other hand, APP for the State argued that convict should be severely punished so that punishment awarded to the convict act as a deterrent to the like minded people.

After giving my thoughtful consideration to the rival submissions of learned APP for the State and learned Counsel for convict this Court is of the view that the convict is guilty of the offence under NDPS Act. Keeping in view the nature of the offence, it is not a fit case for releasing the accused on probation. The convict is sentenced to fine of Rs.2000/- for offence under Section 21 of NDPS Act and in default simple imprisonment for 07 days. Fine has been paid against a proper receipt. Case property, if any is ordered to be dealt with as per law, after the period of limitation for filing any appeal or revision has expired. Copy of judgment has been provided to the convict free of costs. Bail bonds/surety bonds are discharged. File be consigned to the Judicial Record Room, Amritsar, after due compliance.

Note: Certified that this judgment has been directly dictated by the undersigned.
