At this stage.

Present: Ld. APP for State.
Accused in person.
IO in person.

After making the inquiries from the accused, I am satisfied that accused has moved this application voluntarily. The applicant fully understands the consequences of entering into plea bargaining in respect of the accusation/charges against him and intends to arrive at mutually satisfactory disposition with the prosecution. Thus, accused, investigation officer and Ld. APP for the State have been asked to work out a mutually satisfactory disposition in this case.

IO has furnished previous conviction report of the accused. He has submitted that the accused has not suffered conviction for the similar offence.

At this stage, it has been reported by the accused, IO and Ld. APP for the State that they have arrived at MSD. The MSD is drawn separately. Separate statements of all the parties recorded.

In view of the statement made by the accused, he is held guilty for the offence under Section 223(A) BNS and hereby convicted for the same.

Ld. APP for the State has submitted that while conducting Pre-Lok Adalat Sitting, this Court has the power vested in Lok Adalat.

In view of the submission made by the Ld. APP for the State, convict is heard on the point of sentence today itself.

Keeping in view the Mutually Satisfactory Disposition arrived at between the parties, this Court is inclined to take a lenient view while awarding punishment to the convict.

Considering the submissions and the circumstances of the case, the convict is admonished.

Put up for consideration before the Lok Adalat to be held on 10.01.2026.
