Ld. counsel for accused submits that accused is in custody since more than 115 days and his wife is suffering from cancer so he maybe released on bail.

Ld. P.P. strongly objects and submits that accused chose a helpless, mentally and physically challenged girl to execute his heinous plan and the offence was detected only after the girl was in an advanced stage of pregnancy as she was unable to speak and tell anyone what the accused had done and only after it was discovered it came to light that he had raped her multiple times repeatedly so prayer for bail maybe rejected.

In view of gravity of offence alleged, prayer for bail is rejected as of now.
