

Criminal Appeal No. 65 of 2025

Present:- Smt. Angjeeta Mahanta, AJS,
Sessions Judge, Barpeta.

18.07.2026

Learned Counsel for the appellant and the private respondent are present.

State is represented by the learned P.P.

Seen the petition No.1897/2026 filed by the appellant Dilpan Basak and the private respondent Biswapati Sankar Ganguli stating therein that both the parties have amicably settled the instant case before the mediator of the Mediation Centre.

Also seen the mediation report forwarded by the learned Secretary, DLSA, Barpeta.

Heard both the sides.

The parties have orally submitted that during mediation the appellant had paid the settled amount of Rs.1,50,000/- to the private respondent and the private respondent has received the said settled amount from the appellant and there is no other matters pending in respect of the claim between the parties in any other Court and as such, have prayed disposing of this case on compromise.

Accordingly, the instant appeal is disposed of on compromise.

Sessions Judge, Barpeta