

In the Court of Id. District Judge, South 24-Parganas

Mat Suit No.1658 of 2018 (R-1658)

Present : Sri R.N.Samanta, District Judge, 24-Pgs.(S)

Order no.03, dated 31-01-2019

Both parties file haziras and they are present in Court. They also file their respective evidence-in-chief by swearing affidavit.

This suit being one for dissolution of marriage by a decree of divorce on mutual consent, I have made sincere effort to sort out their dispute and reconcile between them. But the petitioners are found not willing to live together any more as married couple and, therefore, the talk on reconciliation fails.

So the suit is taken up for hearing. Both the petitioners are examined on oath.

Heard learned Advocates for both the petitioners. Perused the evidence-in-chief of the petitioners on affidavit. It appears that the petitioners are residing separately for more than one year. There is no chance of reconciliation or reunion between them. They have filed the application under section 13B of the Hindu Marriage Act voluntarily.

I am satisfied that no fraud, coercion or collusion are there in between the petitioners in filing this suit.

In view of the above circumstances, I find no impediment to allow the prayer.

Court fees paid are sufficient.

Hence,
