

EX 1555/26

BEENA DEVI Vs. THE MANAGEMENT OF MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI
CNR No.DLCT01-010287-2026

12.08.2026

Present: Sh. Divanshu Bhandari, Ld. counsel for the DH
(appearing through VC).
Sh. Devansh Gupta, Ld Counsel for JD/MCD
Sh. Ashok Kumar, ASO, DEMS, Shahdara, North Zone.

Calculation sheet filed on behalf of JD/MCD. Spare copy of the same is retained on record for the DH. Be released to the Ld Counsel for the DH against due acknowledgment. Be collected within a week. The same is taken on record today.

As per the calculation sheet, the decretal amount of Rs.24,25,317/- has been admitted to be outstanding and payable as on date.

At this stage, Ld Counsel for the DH prays for issuance of warrant of attachment against the account of the JD for the said decretal amount of Rs.24,25,317/-.

In view of the submissions of Ld Counsel for the DH, let warrants of attachment for an amount of Rs.24,25,317/- be issued against the account of the JD/MCD having Bank Account no. 41010068213, State Bank of India, Chandani Chowk Branch Delhi on PF alongwith BMID number. DH is also directed to file affidavit that there is no stay or appeal pending against the present execution petition. Steps be taken within two weeks from today.

The Bank Manager is directed that in case of non-preparation of banker's cheque due to 'insufficient balance', the upto date bank account statement of JD/MCD be filed on the next date of hearing.

Now to come up for further proceeding on 30.09.2026.

(SHEFALI BARNALA TANDON)
District Judge-04(Central)
Tis Hazari Courts Delhi
12.08.2026(g)