

State v. Himanshu & Vee Pal Singh
Bail Application No. 1299/2023 & 1300/2023
FIR No. Not Known/2023
PS : Karawal Nagar

Present : Mr. N. K. Chaudhary, Advocate for the applicants Himanshu and Veer Pal Singh.
Mr. Praveen Kumar, Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.

1. Himanshu, Amit and Khushboo are before me seeking anticipatory bail by way of two applications. The first three applicants have filed one joint application while the 4th applicant named above has filed a separate application. The assertion in the applications for anticipatory bail is that the applicants are being called by the officers from police station Karawal Nagar in respect of a DD number lodged by Monika. Monika is stated to have been married to Himanshu on 03.05.2023, but is said to be no longer living with the applicant Himanshu. It is alleged that she has filed a complaint of cruelty in connection with which the police have been seeking the presence of the applicants.

2. A reply was called for from police station Karawal Nagar. In the reply it is stated that a complaint dated 12.12.2023 has been received from Monika in which it is alleged that her husband and in-laws had demanded dowry and misbehaved with her. The reply also notes that allegations of domestic violence have also been made against the applicants. However, the reply notes that no FIR has been registered and preliminary inquiry is being conducted.

3. The reply of the IO is clear that an FIR is yet to be registered. It is the submission of the learned Special Public Prosecutor that a formal accusation of commission of non-bailable offence is yet to be registered against the applicants, they have no reason to apprehend arrest. In view of this submission, at this point in time, it cannot be said that applicants are under apprehension of arrest. As such, there is nothing to be determined in these applications.

4. The bail applications are accordingly disposed of. The IO shall bear in mind the provisions of Section 41A Cr.P.C. while acting in the matter. Observations on facts above are only for the purpose of deciding the applications for bail.

23.12.2023

(Shankar Narayanan)
Additional Sessions Judge-01
North-East : Karkardooma : Delhi