

Mat Suit 336/2024

Order No. 21 dated 15.07.2026

The record is put up today.

Ld. Advocate for the petitioner is present.

Petitioner is also present.

At this stage one withdrawal petition is filed on behalf of the petitioner.

On the basis of the application filed by the petitioner today, the case record is taken up for hearing. The petitioner has been examined as P.W-1. On dock the petitioner stated before the court that she is not willing to continue with this instant suit as the matter has been amicably settled between them.

Heard the Ld. Advocate on behalf of the petitioner/wife, he submitted that the disputes have amicably been settled between the parties. So, he prays for withdrawal of the suit.

On perusal of the evidence of petitioner/wife it seems to me that the disputes existed between the parties have amicably been settled and now the petitioner/wife is not willing to continue with this instant suit. It also appears to me that the instant application is filed voluntarily and it is duly supported by affidavit and as such I find no justification to compel this petitioner/wife to proceed with this case.

Hence, it is

that the instant matrimonial suit be and the same is dismissed as withdrawn, but without any order as to costs.

that the instant suit be and the same is disposed of being withdrawn.

All other applications, if pending, stands automatically disposed of.

Note in the relevant register.

CIS be updated.
