ORDER

1. The instant suit is pending disposal before this Court and is listed for hearing on 25-10-2023 i.e. today.
2. Today, when the file is taken up for consideration, the parties to the suit have amicably settled the matter by entering into compromise on the grounds; that the parties have arrived at a consensus and have reduced the contents of consensus into writing and have executed an agreement of compromise, which is made part of the file. Subsequently, statements of the plaintiff as well as the counsel for the plaintiff along-with the defendant as well as the counsel for the defendant were recorded, which seems to be bonafide. It also seems that parties have amicably settled the matter based on the contents of the compromise.
3. In the backdrop of above facts and circumstances, I deem it proper to allow the compromise deed. The suit is disposed off in accordance with the contents of the agreement. The contents of the agreement shall be forming the part of order and decree thereof. Office is directed to do the needful. The suit along with all ancillary applications are accordingly disposed off and all the orders stand vacated.
4. Since the compromise has created new rights in favour of the beneficiaries as such the execution of the decree shall only take place after registration under section 17 of Registration Act and after payment of stamps under Stamp Act.
