

26 Cr. Case 825/2025
STATE Vs. OM PRAKASH 519/2024 (Mohan Garden)

06.05.2025

Present: Sh. Vinay Tehlan, Ld. APP for the State.

Accused in person.

Accused submits that he wants to plead guilty. He further submits that he does not want to avail any legal aid counsel. Accused has also been counselled to get a legal counsel for himself or the court can arrange for him a legal aid counsel. The accused still submits that he does not want any legal aid counsel and wants to plead guilty.

The accused has been informed of the consequences of his pleading guilty. However, he states that he voluntarily pleads guilty without any fear or coercion of any kind.

Notice is framed against the accused to which he pleads guilty.

This court deems it fit to convict the accused for the offence under Section 223(a) BNS.

In view of the plea of guilt, the accused is convicted for an offence under Section 223(a) BNS.

Arguments on the point of sentence heard.

Convict submits that she/he does not have much financial means and have a family to support, therefore, a lenient view may be taken.

Per contra the Ld APP for the state submits that considering the gravity of the offence, maximum punishment should be awarded to the convict.

Heard. Considered.

Keeping in mind the facts including the nature of the offence, this Court deems it fit to sentence the convict to pay a fine of Rs 500/-. Fine paid. Receipt issued.

Since nothing remains to be adjudicated in the present matter, the present matter is accordingly disposed off.

Personal bond/surety bond, if any, stands cancelled. Endorsements, if any, are also cancelled. Surety stands discharged. Original documents of surety, if any, be returned to the surety against proper receipt.

File be consigned to record room after necessary compliance.

(Harshal Negi)
JMFC-02/Dwarka Courts
New Delhi/06.05.2025