BA 1731 26 Mandeep Singh vs. State

Present: Sh. A.S Sangwan, Adv counsel for applicant/accused.
Sh. Ravinder Singh APP for the State assisted by Sh. Jagdeep Singh Daliri, Adv. Counsel for complainant.

Order:

This order of mine shall dispose off the anticipatory bail under section 482 of BNSS filed by the accused/applicant in FIR no. 107 dated 26.04.2026, U/s 118(1),333,115(2),74,190,191(3),351(2) of BNS, P.S City Tarn Taran.

Heard. Record perused. As per prosecution story, the present FIR was registered against the accused/applicant and others with the allegations of dispute regarding parking of vehicles in the street and due to that they have caused injuries to the complainant with dangs and dattar and also insulted her and outrage her modesty. The accused/applicant was armed with dattar. As per counsel for accused/applicant, there is no specific allegation against the accused/applicant as they have not committed any crime and not caused any injuries to anyone. Further, as per counsel for accused/applicant, the injuries are self inflicted and falsely involved the accused/applicant in the present case. As per record, the accused/applicant was armed with dattar and he gave dattar blow upon the neck of the complainant in order to kill her but she saved herself and which hit on her left arm and the accused/applicant also threatened her. Under these facts and circumstances, as per record, the allegations against the accused/applicant are serious in nature as the accused/applicant gave dattar blow upon a lady within intention to kill her. Therefore, the present bail application stands dismissed as the custodial interrogation of the accused/applicant is required to get recover the dattar which was used in the crime. File be consigned to the record room.
