State of Punjab

Vs.

Ram Singh @ Ram son of Sh. Jaswant Singh, R/o village Pahlewal, P.S.
Garshankar, District Hoshiarpur.

FIR No. 116, dated 27.5.2023,
Under Section: 22, 29/61/85 of NDPS Act,
Police Station: Mahilpur, Hoshiarpur.

Bail application U/s 439 Cr.P.C.

Present: Sh.R.S. Abhi, cl for the applicant.
Addl. PP for the State.

ORDER:

1. This order disposes off bail application of accused described in detail herein above. Accusation leading to the registration of this FIR is that police party nabbed a person on the basis of suspicion and he was apprised of his legal right by ASI to be searched as the ASI had apprehension of having some intoxicant in his possession, but accused reposed faith in ASI. Then from the search of accused Ram Singh @ Ram 25 loose unlabelled injections were recovered. As such, present FIR was registered.

2. It is alleged on behalf of Petitioner that petitioner/ accused has been falsely implicated in the present case and he is in judicial custody since 27.5.23. The alleged recovery affected from the accused/applicant is 25 unlabelled injections, which falls within the ambit of non-commercial quantity and the accused/ applicant is no more required for further investigation, whereas he has not committed any offence. That, the police will take long time to present the challan.

3. The bail application has been opposed. Ld. APP for the State argued that the offence is a very serious offence not against the State but against the human race, capable of killing not one or two individuals but in mass. Ld.APP further argued that this is immaterial whether the FSL result has come or not because on the face of it the quantity recovered is a huge quantity, i.e. 25 injections.

4. I have heard counsel for the applicant/accused and Addl. PP for the State besides going through the record. Perusal of the record shows that in this FIR 25 injections were recovered from the possession of the accused. So keeping in view the material facts of the case, nature of crime, recovery, gravity of offence and the manner in which it is alleged to have been committed, no ground is made out to enlarge the accused/applicant on bail, not even on interim bail.

5. As a result the application for grant of regular bail moved by the applicant/accused Ram Singh @ Ram u/s 439 Cr.P.C. stands dismissed. Papers to be consigned to the record room.

Pronounced. Dated: 24.07.2023	Sandeep Singh Jossan PB0150 Judge, Special Court, Hoshiarpur.
