

Matrimonial Suit no.1071 of 2023.

Order No.09 dated 10.07.23

Today is fixed for reconciliation between the parties.

Respondent is present by filing hazira.

Petitioner is absent by filing a petition on the ground stated therein.

Copy is served and objection raised.

At the time of hearing, Ld advocate for the respondent submitted that respondent is attending this court regularly on each and every date fixed but the petitioner is not turning up and as a result respondent is being harassed. Respondent has to attend court along with her minor child.

Ld advocate for the Petitioner submitted that due to some important work at office, petitioner could not come today. Accordingly, prays for time.

From the record, it appears that on previous date also petitioner was found absent on call.

Considering such latches on part of the petitioner, prayer is allowed as last chance.

Fix 22.08.23 for reconciliation as last chance. Petitioner must present in person i.d. necessary order will be passed.

Additional District Judge,
2nd Court, Howrah.
