

Mat Suit No. 1488 of 2025
CNR No. WBHW01 006313 2025
Present: Subhash Kumar Kar,
District Judge, Howrah.
J.O. Code – WB00592

Order No. 02 dated 04.06.2026.

This day is fixed for appearance and hearing.

Parties have taken their respective steps.

The case is now taken up for hearing.

At the instance of both the petitioners several attempts were taken to reconcile but all the efforts were in vain. So the record is taken up for passing order.

This is an application U/s. 13B of the Hindu Marriage Act jointly filed by Piyali Samanta and Kartick Samanta admitting that they were married on 06.03.2017 according to Hindu rites and customs at the father's house of petitioner no. 1 at Vill. Keshabpur, Samanta Para, P.S. Domjur, Dist. Howrah and thereafter they started living at the house of the petitioner no. 2 at Boharia, Hantal, Sitalatala, P.S. Jagatballavpur, Dist. Howrah and one child was born from the said wedlock and in course of their matrimonial living some disputes and differences have cropped up that ultimately led to filing of this application under Section 13B of the Hindu Marriage Act praying for a decree for dissolution of marriage by mutual consent in terms of the condition mentioned in the petition itself.

The petitioners have adduced their evidence by submitting their examination in-chief on affidavit. Both the petitioner Nos. 1 and 2 have filed photocopy of their respective Aadhaar Cards which are marked as Exts.1 & 2 respectively.

It appears from the evidence that the petitioner no. 2 has received the custody of the male child and it is admitted by them as it appears from the application that they have filed this matrimonial suit voluntarily on their own accord and without being influenced by any other person.

I have made an attempt to reconcile the dispute and had an interaction with the parties for reconciliation but in vain. Six months have already been elapsed since the date of filing of the instant application.

It appears that there is no collusion, coercion and undue influence in filing this application and both parties have filed the application voluntarily and I do not find any impediment in allowing this petition and hence, it is,
