P.S. Khanauri.

Present: Sh. Harkirtan Singh Adv. counsel for accused/applicant.
Learned APP for the State.

Heard on the bail application of accused/applicant Lakhdeep Singh. In the application, it has been submitted that the accused/applicant is law abiding citizen of India and he has been falsely implicated in the present case. He never committed any alleged offence. So, prayed to allow the bail application.

Learned APP for the State submitted that accused/applicant is not entitled to concession of bail as the allegations levelled against the accused are serious in nature. So, prayed to dismiss the bail application of accused-applicant.

This Court has gone through the averments of the application as well as material available on record. This Court has also heard the arguments of ld. counsel for the accused and ld. APP for the State and has further gone through the legal preposition which are required to be taken into consideration for the just decision of the present application.

In the present case, FIR No.48 dated 06.05.2019 has been registered Under Sections 323, 341, 452, 506, 148, 149 IPC. The offence committed by accused is serious in nature. As such, this court does not find any justification to release the accused on bail. Accused cannot be held entitled to get bail because the offence committed by accused are serious in nature. Accordingly, the application stands dismissed. Papers be attached with remand papers.

Announced in open court.
