

1705 Sanjay Kumar Vs State Of Punjab

Present: Sh. Neeraj Sabharwal, Advocate, for applicant/accused.
Sh. Anil Gill, Additional PP for the State

Record of the learned trial Court received. After hearing and perusal of record, it has revealed that previously present applicant/accused Sanjay Kumar has been charge-sheeted along with other co-accused for offence under Section 482/380/411 and 457 IPC vide charge sheet dated 04.05.2019. Applicant/accused was already facing the agony of trial along with co-accused, who have already been convicted in the Camp Court on 21.12.2019 at Jail, whereas, applicant/accused absconded from the Court proceedings on 29.11.2021. Non bailable warrants have been going on in the learned trial Court. Previously, applicant/accused has faced the agony of trial approximately more than three years. In the light of the above facts and the alleged offences are triable by the Court of Judicial Magistrate First Class, therefore, he requires the protection from arrest in case of his appearance before the learned trial Court. Keeping in view of these circumstances, applicant/accused is ordered to surrender before the learned trial Court/ Duty Magistrate, Jalandhar within 10 days and in case of his appearance/arrest, he is ordered to be released on bail to the satisfaction of that very Court/Investigating Agency subject to following conditions:-

1. That the applicant/accused would neither commit any default of absenting from the Court nor his counsel would refuse for cross-examination of witness brought by the prosecution in the trial Court. If any such default has been committed by the applicant/accused or his counsel, the the learned trial Court would be at liberty to initiate the process of law against the applicant/accused by cancelling the bail order etc.,

2. That applicant/accused shall not leave the country without prior permission of the Court,
3. That applicant/accused shall not threaten or induce any witness to dissuade him from disclosing the true facts.

Now to come up on 30.05.2022 for report, record and arguments.
