

MHAU080017922024

L.R. Dkst/183/2024
Totaram Mahadu Vs. State of Maharashtra

E-ORDER BELOW EXH.1

This execution petition is pending since long. The decree holder is continuously absent since long and did not take effective steps for the progress of petition. No any adjournment application on record. Today also, decree holder and his Ld. Advocate absent when called repeatedly. The absentee of decree holder show that they are not interested to appear and to take effective steps. Hence, there is no reason to keep pending the petition without appearance of decree holder and without any progress. Consequently, execution petition deserves to be dismissed in default. Hence, I proceed to pass following order -

ORDER

The present execution petition stands dismissed in default for want of prosecution and disposed of accordingly. Both the parties bear their own costs.

Date : 04/08/2026.

(S. S. Deshmukh)
Civil Judge (Senior Division)
Sillod.