

FIR No. 155 dt. 15.08.2023
U/s 25/54/59 Arms Act
P.S. Lehra.

Present: Sh. RR Sharma, Advocate counsel for accused Makhan Singh
Learned APP for the State.

Report of Ahlmad seen. Ld. APP put his appearance on behalf of State but no reply has been filed by the State.

Heard on the bail application of accused/applicant Makhan Singh. In the application, it has been submitted that the accused/applicant has been falsely implicated in the present case and he is in custody. He never committed any alleged offence. So, prayed to allow the bail application.

Learned APP for the State submitted that accused/applicant is not entitled to concession of bail as the allegations levelled against the accused are serious in nature. Accused is habitual offender and involved in other cases. So, prayed to dismiss the bail application of accused-applicant.

This Court has gone through the averments of the application as well as material available on record. This Court has also heard the arguments of ld. counsel for the accused and ld. APP for the State and has further gone through the legal proposition which are required to be taken into consideration for the just decision of the present application.

In the present case, the offence committed by accused is serious in nature. Accused is habitual offender. As such, this court does not find any justification to release the accused on bail. Accused cannot be held entitled to get bail because the investigation is at very initial stage.

Accordingly, the bail application stands dismissed. Papers be attached with remand papers.
