233, 235, 237(3), 318(4), 338, 336(3), 340(2) of BNS registered by the police of Police Station Civil Lines, Karnal.

2. Notice of the bail application was issued to the State. Reply filed. Arguments on bail application heard.

3. Prosecution case in the nutshell is that on 17.02.2026 HC Baljeet Singh was present in Police Post when he got the order of the court of Sh. Sudhir Kumar, Learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Karnal against the person namely Ashwani Kumar stating that in case FIR No. 30/2026, under Sections 316(2), 318(4) BNS, Police Station Madhuban, Karnal case titled, 'State Vs. Veer Bhan' an application has been filed for furnishing bail bonds and surety bonds in compliance of order dated 16.02.2026 and the bail bonds and surety bonds were furnished whereas Ashwani Kumar son of Raghubir Singh has appeared as surety alongwith the surety bonds and his Affidavit submitting that he has not appeared as surety in any other case. He has also produced the copy of the jamabandi record of his land and his original Aadhar card and copy thereof. Upon inquiry and verification from Surety Information Management Software, SIMS, Reader attached to his court has reported the Presiding Officer that said Ashwani Kumar has previously appeared as surety in other criminal cases on the basis of the said Jamabandi record as already produced by him. It has been further reported that said Ashwani Kumar appeared as surety in various criminal cases pending in various different districts of Karnal, Panipat, Sonipat, Bahadurgarh, Jhajjar etc. Moreover upon necessary inquiry from UIDAI website and SIMS, the Reader of his court has also reported that surety Ashwani Kumar has used false Aadhar Card to furnish his surety which are total eleven in numbers, the details of which are mentioned in the order. Hence, the surety Ashwani Kumar was taken into custody and handed over to HC Baljeet and Reader of the court is appointed as complainant in the present case. A written complaint was also handed over to HC Baljeet to proceed further as per law. On this basis formal FIR was registered under Sections 229(1), 233, 235, 237, 318(4), 338, 336(3), 340(2) BNS. After completion of investigation challan was presented in the court on 13.04.2026.

4. I have heard the Learned counsel for the applicant/accused, Learned Public Prosecutor for the State and have gone through the case file carefully.

5. The learned counsel for the applicant-accused has argued that the applicant/accused has been falsely implicated in this case. He has further argued that the police has registered the present FIR against the applicant/accused in connivance with the complainant. He has further argued that the applicant/accused is in custody since 18.04.2026 and no recovery has to be effected from him and the trial of the case will take sufficient long time to conclude, hence no useful purpose would be served by keeping the applicant/accused behind the bars further. Hence, the prayer for granting the regular bail to the applicant/accused has been made.

6. On the other hand, Learned Public Prosecutor for the State has vehemently opposed the bail application of the applicant/accused on the ground that the accused is involved in offence of serious nature. He has further argued that accused is habitual offender and has used eleven different Aadhar Cards to become surety of different people at different Districts of Haryana, the information of which is gathered from UIDAI Website and SIMS. He has further argued that the present case was also registered as complaint moved by the court itself. He has further argued that there is every apprehension that if the concession of bail is granted to the applicant/accused then he may abscond from the process of law. Hence, the prayer for dismissing the bail application of the applicant/accused has been made

7. After considering the rival contentions of both the parties and facts and circumstances of the case, it transpires that accused has been arrested by court itself while he was appearing as surety for the accused in case FIR No. 30/2026 wherein he has furnished his false Affidavit and has also used the same as correct. The offence is serious in nature as he has tried to commit fraud with the court. Hence, keeping in view the nature and gravity of the offence, no ground is made out to grant the concession of regular bail to the applicant/accused at this stage. The present regular bail application of the applicant/accused is hereby dismissed. File be consigned to the record room after due compliance.
