

14 CS (COMM.) 93/26

MOVIN EXPRESS PRIVATE LIMITED v. DENALI FOODS
PRIVATE LIMITED

13.04.2026 (At 11:22 a.m.)

Present: Sh. Bhavya Bathla, ld. counsel for plaintiff.

Email ID of defendant was furnished in the form of affidavit. As per report received, summons with paper book were served through email on 26.02.2026, though defendant was not found at the given address and hence, the speed post has been received back. Ld. counsel submits that at the same Email ID communications were taking place between the parties. In these circumstances, defendant is deemed to be served on 26.02.2026.

The stipulated time period of 30 days from the date of service is already over and till date no WS has been filed on behalf of the defendant. There is no application for extension of time and there is no reason for this court to presume any reason for the defendant, in order to extend the time limit as provided under VIII Rule 1 CPC. Hence, opportunity to file Written Statement is closed. Accordingly, matter is now fixed for evidence of plaintiff.

Original documents as well as proof of deposit of GST by plaintiff, along with affidavit of evidence be tendered on next date. Put up on 17.08.2026, for plaintiff's evidence.

(Pulastya Pramachala)
District Judge (Commercial Court-01),
Patiala House Courts Complex,
New Delhi/13.04.2026