Balwinder Singh Vs. State of Punjab

Present:

Sh. D.R.Mehra Adv. counsel for petitioner.

Sh. APS Dhillon Addl. PP for the State assisted by C. Amandeep.

FSL report is not received from chemical Examiner, despite the receipt of the letter from this court in this regard, whereby the Director of the concerned FSL was directed to submit the FSL report in the present case as directed therein.

In the absence of same, it is not possible for this court to form judicial opinion as to whether the alleged contraband allegedly recovered from the present petitioner is commercial in nature or not.

In view of above, the IO/SHO is directed to obtain the report from the concerned Forensic Science Laboratory in this regard on or before 09.02.2018. Separate letter in this regard be also sent under the signatures of the Presiding Officer of this court, to the Director, the concerned Forensic Science Laboratory, to submit his report in the present case within the period of 7 days from today and IO/SHO is directed to serve the aforesaid letter to the Director, concerned Forensic Science Laboratory within three working days from today, so that, the aforesaid report can be received in time. It is hereby made clear that if the FSL report as directed here in before will not be submitted within the period of seven days from the receipt of letter issued by this court, then the necessary criminal action shall be recommended to be initiated against the concerned Director of the concerned FSL on the next date of hearing. .
