	TRDL010000 802025  12.08.2026	Present Sri Tapan Debbarma Special Judge (NDPS) Court No. 2 Dhalai, Ambassa 1. PP Jyoti Prakash Saha is present. 2. Accused Mongkrajai Marma, Skiro Chakma and Twoingnu Mog on bail are present with Defence Advocate Santanu Ghosh. 3. Case is dragging unnecessarily due to non-execution of Arrest Warrants issued against accused Panna Lal Chakma and Brisha Mani Chakma and thereby the rest three accused are suffering by regularly appearing on the dates of proceeding. 4. Executing Police Officers of the respective police station have been given ample scope for execution of those warrants on priority but there is no prospect to get them executed. 5. Right to speedy trial is part and parcel of the fundamental right enshrined in Article 21 of the Indian Constitution. Owing to lingering of this case without any progress there is possibility of being suffered more by above named three accused persons. Therefore, this Court finds legal scope to proceed further with this case invoking section 356 of the BNSS, 2023 to conduct the trial in absentia

	in respect of warrantee accused persons following all legal formalities. 6. In the above circumstance the executing police officers are hereby directed to submit detailed reports separately whether warrantee accused persons are absconding to evade arrest and is there any immediate prospect of arresting those accused persons. 7. Copy of this order be communicated for necessary action and compliance on or before the next date. Fix 16.09.2026 for ER/ compliance report/ order.
