

Present: Accused with counsel Sh.S.C.Chadda Adv.

Application for surrender-cum-bail has been filed by the accused through counsel by Sh. S.C.Chadda Adv on the assertions that accused has been falsely implicated. It is further averred that no offence has been committed by the accused as alleged in this FIR. It is further averred that the matter has been comprised between accused and the complainant and they have filed a petition U/s 13-B of Hindu Marriage Act for a decree of divorce for dissolution of marriage by mutual consent which is pending in the Court of Sh. R.K.Khullar, Ld. Addl. Principal Judge Family Court Dasuya. It is further averred that the complainant in the petition under section 13-B of the Hindu Marriage Act has got recorded her statement to the effect that "she got registered an FIR No.30 dated 04.03.2020 U/s 323, 354, 34 of IPC, PS Tanda against Sukhwinder Singh and others and she further stated that she undertakes to get cancel the above said FIR and she has no objection if the bail is granted to the accused. Accused are taken into custody.

Along with the bail application, copy of petition U/s 13-B of the HMA Act and the first motion statement of the parties recorded in the said petition.

Notice of the bail application was issued to the Investigating Officer through Naib Court who appeared in the Court and moved an application for arrest of the accused and for judicial remand of the accused for 14 days.

Heard on the bail application of the accused. The ld. Counsel for the complainant contended that the matter between the complainant and the accused has already been compromised and the complainant Aman and her husband Sukhwinder Singh have filed petition U/s 13-B of HM Act which is pending in the Court of Sh. R.K.Khullar Ld. Addl. Principal Judge Family Court Dasuya and in the said petition the complainant has suffered statement that she has effected compromise with the accused persons and she has further undertaken to get the instant FIR cancel against the accused persons. In these circumstances, after going through the documents placed on file, this Court is of the considered view as the matter has been compromised between the complainant and the accused, no useful purpose will be served by sending the accused/applicants in judicial lockup. Moreover, due to intense rise of COVID-19 cases, sending the accused in judicial custody will cause unnecessary rush in the jails. Accordingly, the accused are ordered to be released on bail on furnishing their bail bonds in the sum of Rs. 50,000/- with one surety in the like amount each subject to the conditions:

1. That they shall appear in the Court on each and every date of hearing.
2. That they will not induce or threaten the prosecution witnesses.
3. Accused shall not leave country without prior permission of the Court.
4. The accused shall be responsible to appear to this court on each every date of hearing unless otherwise directed.

Requisite bail bonds and surety bonds has been furnished on behalf of accused.

Dated: 22.03.2021
Sandeep Kumar steno

Renu Goyal, PCS
JMIC/Dasuya
UID No. PB-0553

Present: Accused in custody with counsel Sh.Parveer Chadda Adv.
Ld. APP for the State along with IO SI Parvinder Singh

Accused have moved an application for their surrender and bail in the aforesaid case. In pursuance of the said application the accused have been taken into custody and notice of the bail application was issued to the Investigating Officer through Naib Court who appeared and moved two applications i.e. one application for formally arresting the accused in this case and another application for 14 days of judicial remand of accused.

Accordingly, in view of the application moved and contends mentioned therein, the application for formally arrest the accused is allowed. The Investigating Officer is allowed to formally arrest the accused in this case.

Another application for judicial remand of the accused for 14 days has been filed by the Investigating Officer. Vide my separate order of my even date the accused have been granted bail on their furnishing bail bonds and surety bonds in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with one surety of like amount each and the accused have furnished the bail bonds and surety bonds which have been accepted and attested by the Court of undersigned. So in these circumstances when the accused have been granted bail and they have furnished the bail bonds and surety bonds, the application for judicial remand for 14 days has become infructuous and is disposed of accordingly.

For awaiting the challan case adjourned to 24-5-2021.

Dated: 22.03.2021
Sandeep Kumar steno

Renu Goyal, PCS
JMIC/Dasuya
UID No. PB-0553