TC 74137/2025

STATE Vs. RAVI KUMAR

E-challan Details: DL20462200201140300 – DL1SAD2700

18.08.2026

Present: Ld. APP for the State.

None for the Violator.

AT FIRST CALL:

Vide the last order, fine was imposed upon the Violator. Since no payment was reflecting on the said date, in the interest of justice and giving the benefit of doubt to the Violator that the payment might have been delayed due to the epay portal, the case was listed for today in the category of “Confirmation of Payment”.

Reader of this court has informed that the payment is still not reflecting on the epay portal.

Case be recalled at 1 PM.

AT 2:15 PM:

Even at the second call the payment is still not reflecting and none has appeared to apprise about the status of the same.

This court is of the considered view that ensuring the presence of the Violator through the process available under the BNSS will be unnecessary burden on the state exchequer when the Violator himself had appeared and pleaded guilty for the offence charged under the challan on the previous date of hearing.

Consequently, the case is adjourned sine die.

File be consigned to Record Room as per rules.
