Decided on: 06.05.2025

Veena & anr. Versus State of Punjab

FIR No. 62 dated 09.04.2025
U/s 21(b), 21, 29 NDPS Act.
P.S. Dinanagar.

Bail application under Section 483 BNSS.

.....

Present: Sh. Bhuvnesh Mahajan, counsel for applicants
Shri Vikram Kashyap, Ld. Additional P. P for State

ORDER

1. This order of mine shall dispose of an application having been filed by applicants-accused seeking bail in view of provisions of Section 483 BNSS in above noted FIR.
2. Notice of the application was issued to the State and the police record has been requisitioned.
3. Learned counsel for the applicants has argued that no case is made out against the applicants and they have been falsely involved by police. The alleged recovery of 9.5 gm heroin has already been effected from the accused and they are in judicial custody since the date of their arrest i.e. 09.04.2025 & 10.04.2025. Challan has not been presented and trial of case will take long time. Accordingly, he has prayed for grant of bail to the applicants.
4. Per contra learned Additional PP for the State opposed the bail application and prayed for its dismissal.
5. Rival contentions of both the sides have been heard and the record has been perused with due care and circumspection.

6. Perusal of police record produced before the court reveals that the applicant Veena has been apprehended in possession of 9.5 grams which falls in non-commercial quantity. Applicant Vicky has been apprehended in the present case just on the disclosure statement of applicant Veena being supplier of aforesaid contraband to her. The applicants/accused are in custody since their date of arrest i.e. 09.04.2025 & 10.04.2025. Hence, this court is of the considered opinion that presentation of challan and conclusion of trial shall take long time, where as no useful purpose would be served by retaining the applicants in custody. Accordingly, the bail application moved by the accused/applicants stands allowed and they are ordered to be released on bail on furnishing of their bail bonds to the satisfaction of Ilqa/ Duty Magistrate subject to the conditions that the accused will not try to tamper with the prosecution evidence in any manner, will not leave the country without prior permission of the court, will appear on each and every date of hearing. The Duty/Ilqa Magistrate is directed to send the bonds to this court after acceptance for being attached with case file. Papers be attached with the main file/challan whenever same shall be presented.
