REMP/113/2022

FIR No.251 Dated: 30.09.2022.

Under Section: 379 of IPC.

Police Station: Guhla, Kaithal.

State Vs. Amandeep alias Deepu and other

Present:- Shri Manoj Kumar, Ld. APP for the State.

Sh. Sushil Bansal, counsel for accused Sachin.

File taken up on an application moved on behalf of applicant/accused Sachin through his counsel for concession of bail. Reply filed. Arguments heard. Applicant/accused is in custody since 27.10.2022. No recovery is to be effected. It is settled principle of law that bail is a rule and jail is exception. The purpose of grant of bail is neither punitive nor preventative but to secure the presence of applicants/accused during trial. The participation of applicant/accused in commission of present offences is to be adjudged on the basis of evidences to be led by the prosecution, in case, prosecution is successful in doing so, then the applicant/accused shall face its consequences. Trial of this case may take long time. No useful purpose will be served by keeping the applicant/accused any longer behind the bars. Without commenting upon the merits of the case, the applicant/accused Sachin is admitted to bail on bail on furnishing bail bonds in the sum of Rs. 50,000/- with one surety in the like amount. Requisite bail/surety bonds furnished on behalf of accused, which are accepted and attested. Personal bonds accepted and to be attested in jail by jail authority. Release warrant of accused be issued forthwith. He be released on bail, if not required in any other case. Now to come up on 23.11.2022 for the date and purpose already fixed.

In compliance of order of Hon'ble Punjab & Haryana High Court in CWP No. 4898 of 2018 titled Hari Chand Vs. U.T. Chandigarh and others, intimation be given to the appropriate registering authority to make endorsement on the original document of the surety regarding the fact that he stood as surety in the case.
