This case came up for consideration today and the court on the same day passed the following:

JUDGMENT

The accused is put on trial for the offence punishable U/s.118(e) of K.P.Act. Accused present. Copy served as per S.207 Cr.P.C. Heard both sides. Charge framed, read over and explained to the accused in Malayalam. He was asked whether he pleads guilty of the offence charged or claims to be tried. Having understood the seriousness of the allegations and the implications of pleading guilty of the charges, accused pleaded guilty of the offences in clear and unambiguous terms.

After having considered all relevant factors such as the voluntariness and genuineness of the plea, I accepted the plea of the accused and I find the accused guilty of the offences charged against the accused. This is not a fit case to invoke the provisions of Probation of Offenders Act. Heard on question of sentence. Counsel prayed for leniency. The accused is convicted for the said offence u/s. 264 of BNSS (sec. 241 Cr.P.C) and sentenced to pay fine of ₹300/-. In default of payment, accused shall undergo simple imprisonment for two days.
